

Presidential Salute

Florida International University

February 29, 2012

Dear University Community,

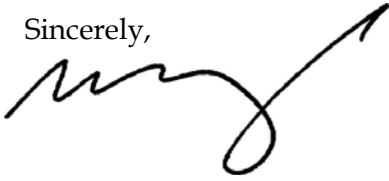

Please join me in recognizing Clara Cabal for her dedication and unwavering commitment to delivering excellent quality service to the FIU community. Clara joined the FIU family in March 1998 on a temporary basis with the Department of Sociology. Shortly thereafter, she was hired as the Office Manager for the Office of Admissions, a position she has held since October 1998.

Clara has been described as someone who is resourceful and upbeat when it comes to serving our students and the university community. "Clara is the glue that keeps the office functioning; she's like the office mother," says her supervisor, Barry Taylor, Director, Undergraduate Admissions. "Her many years of service, impeccable professionalism, competence, and steady politeness, make coming to work a pleasure for everyone. She never says no to a project, particularly if it improves customer service, helps solve a problem, and helps achieve the university's enrollment goals. She is a true gem for FIU!"

We are proud to have Clara as part of the FIU Worlds Ahead Family! I look forward to learning of the next candidate for the Presidential Salute. If you know someone deserving of this recognition, please let us know. To submit your nomination, please click here.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Mark B. Rosenberg', with a long, sweeping flourish extending upwards and to the right.

Mark B. Rosenberg
President