

MEMORANDUM

September 9, 2011

Dear FIU family:

Today we come together as a university community to commemorate a day that has marked all of our lives and indeed our nation.

On the 10th anniversary of the September 11 attacks, we remember the victims and honor the first responders who sacrificed their lives to help others. We also are thankful for the servicemen and women who continue to put their lives on the line to protect our freedoms.

The Office of Global Learning Initiatives has organized a day of commemoration that will bring together FIU students, faculty, staff, alumni and religious and community leaders.

Please join us for a teach-in today at 10 a.m. in the Graham Center Ballrooms at the Modesto Maidique Campus. A Commemoration and Reflection ceremony will take place on the PC steps at 12:15 p.m. For a full schedule of events visit the Unity Diversity: Reflecting on the Meaning of 9/11 website.

I encourage you to take part in this day of reflection.

Sincerely,

Mark B. Rosenberg
President
