

MEMORANDUM

October 1, 2010

Dear Faculty and Staff:

You should take considerable pride in the robust arts scene--right here at our FIU! Whether through our College of Architecture + The Arts, or our two museums, FIU has launched an exciting Arts, Design & Culture Season for the 2010-2011 academic year.

For this new season, we have outstanding concerts, performances, lectures and exhibitions on campus and around the community. The College of Architecture + The Arts also has added new Worlds Ahead faculty artists such as flutist Nestor Torres and orchestra conductor Dr. Grzegorz Nowack, from the prestigious Royal Philharmonic in London.

I encourage you, your families, and your friends to take advantage of these incredible cultural opportunities by purchasing a 2010 Fall Season Pass for the Arts, Design & Culture Season.

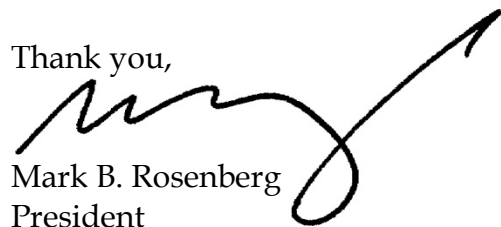

The College of Architecture + The Arts is offering a special promotion to all university faculty and staff. By purchasing a Fall Season Pass for $75 you will receive the 2010-2011 Arts, Design & Culture Season Pass for the entire year - a $150 value. Purchase your Season Pass online today or call 305-348-0496 for more information.

This pass entitles you to attend every event, concert and production on and off campus during the fall and spring semesters, excluding fundraising events, but including many personal invitations to VIP events and receptions (more than 50 events to choose from). For a calendar of events, please visit the College of Architecture + The Arts website.

In addition to these exciting events, we are blessed with two world-class museums, the Patricia & Phillip Frost Art Museum and the Wolfsonian. I encourage you to check out the many wonderful programs and exhibits at both museums.

Please support the arts at FIU and have a Worlds Ahead experience!

Thank you,

Mark B. Rosenberg
President
