

MEMORANDUM

July 8, 2010

Dear members of the FIU Community,

There are only two days left to cast your vote for FIU's own Garrett Wittels as ESPN's Best Male College Athlete of 2010. So vote now and tell all your friends to vote!

go.fiu.edu/espys

Then share this link with everyone you know – family, friends, colleagues and all their friends too via email, Facebook, Twitter and any social media outlet you belong to!

The ESPYs award show will air Wednesday, July 14. Everyone is invited to the FIU ESPYs Watch Party Wednesday at Chili's in the Graham Center from 8-11 p.m.

Chili's will be staying open late and serving up specials in addition to their full menu. Come join the fun and cheer for Garrett.

Garret, an All-American infielder, went on a 56-game hit streak this season and is poised to break the NCAA record. Only three baseball players in Division I and the Major Leagues have ever accomplished such a feat: Joe DiMaggio, Robin Ventura and Wittels.

WHAT: The FIU ESPYs Watch Party

WHO: All students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends

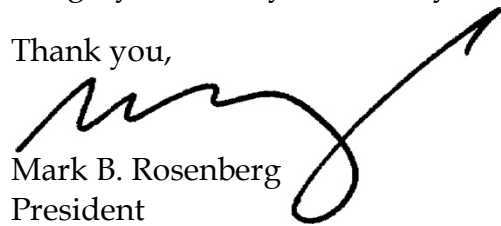

WHEN: Wednesday, July 14 from 8 - 11 p.m.

WHERE: Chili's in the Graham Center

Facebook Event Page: <http://go.fiu.edu/338>

Please note: Voting closes Saturday, July 10. The go.fiu.edu/espys link takes you directly to Wittels' category to vote. If you have already voted it is going to take you to the next category, because you can only vote once.

Thank you,

Mark B. Rosenberg
President
