

MEMORANDUM

June 25, 2019

Dear FIU family,

It is with a heavy heart that I share sad news for our FIU. Dan Salzverg, one of the most beloved and enthusiastic members of the FIU family, passed away on Monday.

Many of you know Dan from the years he spent working as assistant general manager of the Barnes & Noble at FIU - MMC. He always greeted the students, faculty and staff who shopped there with a smile and worked hard to make sure everyone had a positive experience.

He was one of the most dedicated members of our Panther family. As part of our President's Council, he was an exemplary ambassador for our FIU and a big supporter of the Fostering Panther Pride program, which assists students who were formerly in foster care or are homeless. Even after retiring from Barnes & Noble, he was very active, joining us at football games and traveling with us to bowl games. He also volunteered his time to the annual Ignite faculty and staff fundraising campaign for the past four years, as part of his commitment to student and institutional success.

Our deepest condolences go to his family, including his wife Gisela and his sons, Joseph and Brian, a 2015 graduate of the Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine.

Dan's spirit, humor and love for our university will live on with all of us who knew and loved him. This is a tremendous loss for our FIU family. We are grateful for all his contributions to our FIU and will miss him greatly.

Services for Dan will be held Thursday, June 27 at 10 a.m. at Mount Nebo Kendall, 5900 SW 77th Ave., Miami, 33143, Shiva to follow at 5430 SW 69th Place, Miami, 33155.

Sincerely,
